Bioscience Awards

2014

Tech Collective's Rhode Island Bioscience Awards honor those who are innovating and impacting our industry. These are the scientists, researchers, thinkers, and culture changers challenging the status quo. These are the innovations, technologies and break-throughs literally changing worlds and changing lives. From laboratories to production, from concept to cultivation, from individual contributor to community leader, these industry champions are strengthening the growth and influence of Rhode Island's bioscience sectors locally and globally.

Award Categories

New to the Awards program this year are four recognition categories:

- ↻ Individual – outstanding bioscience professional or entrepreneur working across any of the industry sectors
- ↻ Product / Innovation: Startup – breakthrough industry product, service, or innovation
- ↻ Product / Innovation: Enterprise – breakthrough industry product, service, or innovation
- ↻ Community Leader – individual, organization, or company advancing the bioscience industry forward in Rhode Island through advocacy, education/mentorship, workforce development, youth engagement, and/or leadership.
